

Koa Prep Staff Bios

Robert Roman, Assistant Coach

Robert is a DC native that graduated from Walt Whitman High School and grew up in a basketball household. He attended Towson University, and was highly involved on campus in the community and served as the vice president for the Boxing club. Robert began his basketball coaching career in 2011 as head coach at High Road High School and in 2012 served as an assistant JV coach at Bethesda Chevy Chase High School (BCC). During the off-season Robert took head coaching roles in various summer leagues. In 2013, he began coaching AAU for Adidas Uprising, and trained multiple high major student athletes. He is currently the head basketball coach at Herbert Hoover middle school.

After receiving his master's degree in Sports Administration at McDaniel College in 2015, Robert founded Basketball & Recruiting Athletics (BRA). BRA trains, recruits, and places both domestic and international student athletes and in High schools (public & private), Junior colleges, Four-year College/Universities, and AAU Teams. Robert focuses on each player and family's individual need and makes the student athlete his top priority and ensures he puts the athletes in the best program.

Robert has sponsored many international students. He has developed relationships with the top AAU programs in the DMV area, as well as basketball academies in Africa, Europe, and Australia. Robert has helped dozens of student athletes receive college scholarships at the JUCO, NAIA, D1, D2 levels.

Robert loves coaching, it's in his bones! Robert loves watching student athletes working hard to achieve success on and off the court. Robert always had a passion of helping others, and truly believes he is making an impact in the lives of others.

