

Koa Travel Baseball Staff Bios

Oscar Espinal, 10u Coach

How long have you been with Koa, and in what capacity: I joined the Koa family in January 2018.

Playing/coaching experience: Assistant coach for one season at my HS before joining Koa. 2x champion in Koa's BABL A division. I am also a coach in the BABL AA division and assist in the Travel program.

What makes you tick (what motivates you)? Living in each moment as if it were my last. I try to make the best out of every situation. There might not be a tomorrow, "Yesterday is history and tomorrow's a mystery, today is a gift, which is why they call it the present."

What's the best thing about baseball? The best thing about baseball, in my opinion, is, once the cleats are laced, and the umpire yells "PLAY BALL!." That feeling of "alright, let's do this!" knowing that your team is behind you, that they're all there for the same common goal and they are going to give it their ALL!

Non-baseball interests: I have been doing stand-up comedy since the age of 18, Besides writing jokes, I spend my spare time working on a screen play.

Rob Castillo , 10u Coach

How Long Coaching for Koa, Capacities: This will be my second season with Koa Sports and many more to come!

What Makes You Tick/ Motivated: Teaching the game. It gives me the gratification that they have learned something from me. Seeing that smile on their face, and watching them play with fun puts a smile on my face!! I have a saying, 'believe in yourself' and everything will be all right while playing baseball.

Previous Baseball Experience: Started playing baseball at 8. 1981 Montgomery County Recreation League. Played in middle school with Catholic Youth Organization with St. Jerome's Hyattsville, MD. Attended DeMatha Catholic HS, in Hyattsville played baseball there for 3 years. During my high school career, played Babe Ruth and American Legion. I had an opportunity to play in Nicaragua in an amateur league after graduating from High School.

Off-field Interests: Love to hang out with my wife and take long walks with my dog, Makoto. I have twin boys age 14, Leo and Dylan.

Steve Friedman, 11u Coach

How long have you been with Koa/ Capacities: I have been with Koa since January of 2017. I coached 3 seasons of BABL and this Spring will be my 4th season coaching travel.

Playing/Coaching Experience: I played many years of travel baseball in MCBA, JV and Varsity starting shortstop at Rockville High School, 1 fall season at Montgomery College.

What motivates you? The opportunity to get better in any way, every day. Nothing is more rewarding for me than seeing the potential in a kid and being able to help them reach their goals and be they best player and person they can be.

Non-baseball interests: Going on bike rides and playing pick up basketball

Stephen Cuccia, 11u Coach

What does Shaping Kids' Lives Through Sports mean to you?:

"Building the kids to not only be better players on the baseball field, but overall shaping their lives into being more positive, disciplined, and hardworking; being their best self on and off the field."

Playing Experience: Coach Stephen played Travel Baseball from little league through high school (including a trip to Cooperstown) with the Crofton Baseball Club. He played pitcher and first baseman for four years at Arundel High School.

Coaching/Mentoring Experience: Stephen has worked many different athletic realms. He worked as a ski instructor in Winter Park, Colorado. Stephen also worked as a golf instructor at Lake Presidential, Maryland and Keystone River Course, Colorado. He also has coached Koa 11U Travel Baseball.

Jack Cheney, 16u Coach

Year you started at Koa? 2019, I'm pumped!

Playing Career: I started playing the wonderful game of baseball at 3 years old. After graduating high school in 2014 I attend Delaware Technical Community College. As a freshman, I was earned the starting second baseman spot. As a sophomore, I was one of our two-way players, pitcher/shortstop. Following my two years at Del Tech I was recruited to pitch at Salisbury University where I was a long/late inning reliever. During my two years at Salisbury University, I was a part of 2 Conference Championships and had the pleasure of pitching in 2 NCAA Tournaments. One year we came up 9 outs short of a World Series appearance.

Coaching Career: I started coaching baseball at 18 years old as a part-time assistant coach. Following my playing career, I decided to coach as much as possible. In 2019, I was the head coach of an All-Star team in the Babe Ruth League, while also becoming a volunteer assistant coach at my former high school Oakland Mills.

What Motivates You? With hard work anything is possible.

Local Connection: Born, raised, and currently reside in Prince Georges County, Maryland.

Fun Fact: I've had the pleasure of hanging out with 3 World Series Champions, and 1 Hall Of Famer on multiple occasions: Troy Brohawn, Denny Neagle, Pedro Stop, and Vladimir Guerrero

Zeke Green, 16u Coach

What does Shaping Kids' Lives Through Sports mean to you?:

"Being the best I can be - the most myself I can be - shows the kids they can be who they are too."

Playing Experience: Coach Zeke played baseball at Walter Johnson High School and made the All Gazette honorable mention.

Coaching/Mentoring Experience: Zeke has coached for two years at KOA with our BABL program and has coached for two years with the Maccabi Olympic Baseball Team.

Season Started with Koa Sports: Fall, 2017

Off the Field Interests: NFL Football, Stock market, Hiking, and camping

Tony Korson, CEO

If you haven't met him, you surely will soon. CEO Tony Korson is a Bethesda boy with a love of baseball and a belief in the power of youth sports.

Playing/coaching experience: After attending Whitman HS (where he's now a proud member of the Hall of Fame!!), he received his BA in Finance and tossed his 12-6 curveball at Florida Gulf Coast University. After graduation, Tony decided to forego the world of suits and ties for jerseys and cleats...and Koa Sports was born!

Favorite De-Stresser: Cruising in the Jeep, top down, doors off!

Signature Look: Crazy hair

Walkup Song: Pursuit of Happiness – Kid Cudi

Andrew Cresci, Director of Baseball Operations

How long have you been with Koa, and in what capacity:

I started working at Koa in February 2018 as a coach/instructor and baseball operations assistant. I will be coaching the BABL A Dingers as well as providing instruction for clinics and private lessons.

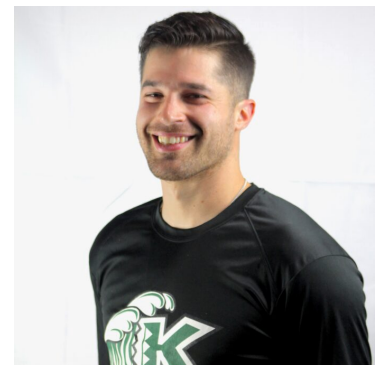

Playing/coaching experience: In 2017 I played overseas in Rome, Italy for S.S. Lazio. Prior to that, I played collegiate baseball at Sacred Heart University. I have 5+ years coaching in both individual and team environments and have coached several rec and travel teams in both, New Jersey and New York.

What makes you tick (what motivates you)? The passion for coaching and the sport of baseball. Coaching is the only job I've ever had where I do not have to look at the clock and hope my day is over. Nothing motivates me like a love for what you do.

What's the best thing about baseball? The atmosphere and extra base hits.

Local Connection: I recently moved to Washington, D.C. and love it!

Non-baseball interests: After making the switch from full time player to full time coach, I am attempting to fill that competitive void with giving cycling/road racing a go. I am also a big history buff, so I enjoy museums and being outdoors.
